FAI · ISC · INDOOR DYNAMIC FLYING

Become an FAI Dynamic Judge

Judge at World Cups and World Championships in Dynamic 2-Way, Dynamic 4-Way and Dynamic Solo.

The ISC Judge Training Course does not teach judging from scratch: it assesses whether your knowledge and practical skills already meet FAI standards. Come prepared: train with the results and videos on the ISC website, or contact the ISC Judge Video Librarian.

What every FAI Judge needs

The rules

Detailed knowledge of the Sporting Code (General Section and Section 5 with its annexes) and of the Dynamic and Solo Speed Competition Rules.

English

The ability to understand and communicate in English, the working language of the ISC.

A logbook

A judging logbook kept up to date, in English, each entry signed by the Chief Judge.

How to get on the course

1. Get the approval of your NAC (or its nominated authority).
2. Meet the English language requirement.
3. Present your judging logbook to the Judge Training Coordinator when requested.
4. Hold a valid DY National Judge rating, or show the required DY experience.

No national rating? Show your DY experience

AS A JUDGE

Judged, or acted as Judge-in-Training, at 2 or more D2W or D4W competitions (FCE, SCE or national) in the last 4 years, confirmed in writing and recorded in your logbook.

AND

AS A PERFORMER

Competed in D2W or D4W in the last 5 years: at least 2 FAI/ISC competitions (FCE or SCE), or at least 3 national competitions run strictly under the ISC Competition Rules.

Full details: FAI Sporting Code, Section 5, paras. 6.1.1, 6.1.2 and 6.2.
Contact: ISC Judges · isc-judges@fai.org · dynamicflying.com

Your path to the judging panel starts here.